

sometimes

my older human self listens with yearning to the beautiful countenances in colour and sound described by our clairvoyant friends.

To each his job!

I am here you will see me under a curtain or submerged rock

sending sheets of blue flame through your parlor room curtains they did not wake up they did not find dreams!